

An effluent screen should be placed in the outlet of the septic tank for additional filtration (See examples below).

